2018 Featured Gardens

1. Ron & Deb Schromen

8301 Southern Hills Court, Dubuque, Iowa

FEELS LIKE COUNTRY - Several extensive gardens featuring a fountain, raised beds, walkways and beautiful retaining walls, flowering accent perennials, bushes, ornamental trees, and annuals. A special Campsis Trumpet Vine climbs on the arbor and attracts many hummingbirds. Hibiscus moscheutos, Rose of Sharon, and climbing Sweet Pea delight the senses.

WORKSHOP - Growing Hydrangeas at 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.

DIRECTIONS - From Hwy 61/151, take Hwy 52 South 1.4 miles and turn right on Kemp Road. Travel 1.1 miles, turn right on Southern Hills Court - first drive on right.

2. Pam & Bert Goffinet

1100 Victoria Place, Dubuque, Iowa

VICTORIA'S SECRET GARDEN (aka Pam and Bert's Plot o' Dirt) - Nested in a cul-de-sac is a modest yard with a plethora of color and whimsical charm. Garden beds surround the perimeter of the property with a wide variety of perennials for both sun and shade. Take a moment to enjoy the splendor of the tri-color beech tree that greets you in the front yard or wander to the back patio to view the container gardens brimming with color.

WORKSHOP - Home Composting at 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m.(noon)

3. Dick & Louise Strub

1060 Victoria Place, Dubuque, Iowa

ARBORETUM SOUTH - Incorporated into the garden beds are over 400 different Hosta species along with a wide variety of perennials and numerous antique iron pieces. The gardens have all been "hand-made" by the owners including the pond, gazebo, fencing, and even the rock placement contouring every bed. It is truly a garden made with love.

DIRECTIONS - Next house on Victoria Place.

4. Sandi Beisler & David Olson

909 Spires Drive, Dubuque, Iowa

THE LEMONADE GARDEN - Imagine a small city lot 14 years ago; the perfect house with the worst backyard, comprised of only two trees, clay soil, grass, and weeds. Today, the lemon yard has been squeezed into lemonade with limestone terracing and many plantings including ground covers, grasses, iris, and hostas. A "tiny-house" greenhouse is a focal point that has produced many of the annuals planted in the garden. A birch rain garden absorbs the hillside overflow in storms.

5. Kassandra Powell & Karl Steichen

2393 Abbott Street, Dubuque, Iowa

JOYFUL JAZZ GARDEN - This perennial garden exudes happiness and positivity. It is colorful and whimsical with Mississippi River driftwood and metal focal points throughout, including a natural stone and brick walkway, patio, and a backyard kitchen garden.

WORKSHOP - Perennials in a Small Space at 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

6. Deanna & Terry Biedermann

790 Boyer Street, Dubuque, Iowa

SECRET GARDEN HIDEAWAY - Mature trees anchor an ornate tapestry of free-form beds, each bursting with color from spring through autumn. Vibrant perennials, tall prairie grasses, and a collection of labeled hostas are punctuated with favorite annuals creating a peaceful oasis in the city.
